UP WITH STARS AND STRIPES.

Mayor Grant Issues a Request to the People.

Major Grant late this afternoon issued the following proclamation concerning the propriety of all the citizens of the city taking part in the approaching Columbus celebration:

To the people of the City of New York:

On the 10th, 11th, and 12th of this month the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of America by Christopher Columbus will be celebrated.

It would be proper for our citizens of the appropriateness of the celebration. Magnificent preparations for it have been made by the Committee. One hundred apportioned to me under the provisions of the Legislature.

Special preparations, supplementing those of the Committee, have been made by a great many of our societies and organizations who have planned, and many of them have already begun, handsome decorations of the streets, places, and dwellings.

Public and private meetings in commemoration of an event that changed the course of history and made commerce and industry, instead of war, the great pursuit of nations have thus far been held.

Your patriotism, as well as your civic pride, should lead you all to join heartily in the patriotic observance, for which arrangements have been made. Let the personal expression of every citizen be heard.

Brighten and beautify your houses and business places with the colors of our nation. Representatives of foreign countries and governments will participate in the festivities, and in honor of them, as well as everyone else, let the flags of all national character, their colors should be displayed.

But run the Stars and Stripes up on every flagstaff.

On Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 8 and 9, religious services will be held.

Let our people assemble in their various places of worship, and offer thanks for the blessings with which America has been favored.

PECK BEFORE JUDGE CLUTE.

Points on the Case Taken and an Adjournment to Oct. 18.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

ALBANY, Oct. 6.—The Peck case came up in the Court of Sessions to-day, on an argument to demur to the indictment found against the Labor Commissioner for burning public records. Attorney Neggan, for Mr. Peck, said the indictment found was a fraud upon the Court. In his opinion it was improperly drawn, in so far as it did not specifically state just what public records Mr. Peck is charged with destroying.

Mr. Neggan held that according to all authorities the circulars and answers alleged to have been destroyed were not statistical detail, but that that term referred solely to the arrangement and combination of the facts contained in the circulars into tables. He quoted several authorities of cases to sustain his contention that the circulars and answers should not have been filed and could properly have been destroyed after the compilation had been made by Mr. Peck for his annual report.

District-Attorney Cohen rose to answer Mr. Neggan, saying the prosecution would attempt to show on the trial that these circulars and answers were public records and had been on file in the Labor Bureau.

Judge Clute said: "Then I understand the only point you are disagreed on is that these circulars are public records."

Mr. Cohen—Yes, sir. If you decide that they were not public records, then we admit we have no case to try there."

Judge Clute—I am prepared to decide such an important question of law on the arguments presented, and shall adjourn the case until Oct. 18.
